ANONYMOUS

I wrote our names
A thousand times
To see yours sitting next to mine
Then sent you flowers card unsigned
Anonymous

In days to come like days that pass
My heart beats for you always has Although you've known me only as
Anonymous

And in dreams at night,
I carried your books for you
And when I'd rise, a flame for you
Always too shy
To carry this whole thing through

Like the light from that eternal flame
Burns for one without a name
My love forever will remain
Anonymous

I guess you'll always wonder
Who it was
Who it was

My thanks to Jon Schwabe for this music and his friendship - through all these years, and to Garth Brooks and Allen Reynolds for taking a chance on a song Jon and I wrote through the mail and over the phone.
