Gonna Start Living Again

(Tony Arata, George Marinelli, Jr., Pete Wasner)

I've been running in circles
I ain't getting nowhere
I've been so uncertain
I just walk around scared
But from this moment on
I'm letting go of everything that's gone

There ain't no good reason
Nothing short of a sin
To let another evening
Come to another end
So tonight I'm gonna go on out
With my hopes up and my guard down

*I'm gonna start living again
I don't know why
Why did I let my heart go tumbling down
Into this lonely world where I've been
Gonna start living again*

When you finally wind up
The rock bottom's hard
Until you make your mind up
You can only fall so far
Ain't nobody else's fault but mine
If there's any more wasted time

*I'm gonna start living again
I don't know why
Why did I let my heart go tumbling down
Into this lonely world where I've been
Gonna start living again*
