

Pete WASNER • Tony Arata

Sorry for the scratchiness. Pretend you're listening to an old record.

So Close

(Tony Arata, George Marinelli, Jr., Pete Wasner)

So far
There was not a second thought
No heart ever got close enough
You are watching as I am caught
In a moment off-guard

So close
I can nearly taste it
Suppose this is that one promised love
God knows all that I've wasted now
Never letting it start

Now all my resistance
I feel it slip away
Now all of the distance
Ever less with every day by day

So far
There was no connection
No spark out of which a fire grows
I start in your direction I'm Ever so close

Now all my resistance
I feel it slip away
Now all of the distance
Ever less with every day by day

So far, I have never been
So close

*George Marinelli — acoustic guitar, electric slide guitar, bass guitar, background vocals
Pete Wasner — lead vocal, piano, B3, snare drum, emax kick drum*
