

Pete WASNER • Tony Arata

Used To

(Tony Arata, George Marinelli, Jr., Pete Wasner)

Honey, when you said good-bye
I didn't think my life worth living
I took a right nasty fall
And I thought about ending it all
Glad I didn't
It's a mighty good thing to know
Life's about making the most
Out of what you're given

What I found ain't half that bad
Though it isn't everything we had
Now that's true
But it's good for the body and soul
Trading in something old
On the brand new
See when you can't get what you're used to
Ain't it funny what you can get used to

It might take some time
But I can tell you
You might be surprised
How you get by
When you can't find
What you been used to

Watchin' my world walk out
There was a moment of doubt and confusion
When you get enough being alone
You gotta go get your own substitution
When you can't get what you're used to
Ain't it funny what you can get used to

*George Marinelli, Jr. — electric guitar, electric bass, drum programming
Pete Wasner — keyboards, lead vocal*

Little Tybee Music/Uncle Pete Music/Wing Ding Music